The mediation must be completed before a request for an appraisal can be made.

- B. Notwithstanding paragraph A. above, the total recovery under all such policies or coverages cannot be greater than the single highest limit that applies for any one loss under one policy of insurance providing coverage on either a primary, secondary, or excess basis.
- C. If we are required by applicable law, or by a court with proper jurisdiction, to provide any insurance under this policy that would not otherwise be covered by the terms of this policy, the coverage provided under this policy shall be:
 1. Excess to any and all other insurance, contingent insurance, self-insurance, liability bonds, certification of financial responsibility, and/or any other source of protection or recovery; and
 2. Limited to the minimum types of coverage and the minimum limits required by that law.

EXCLUSION OF TRANSPORTATION NETWORK COMPANY & PERSONAL VEHICLE SHARING PROGRAM USE

- A. There is no coverage of any kind under this policy for any accident, loss, "bodily injury", "property damage", or any other damage, expense, or loss for any person or any party that results from, arises out of, or is related to any person operating or using "your covered auto" or any other vehicle in any type of activity associated or connected with any transportation network company (TNC). This includes the ownership, maintenance, use, occupancy, or possession of any vehicle during the period of time from the moment a participating driver in a TNC logs on to the TNC's digital network or online-enabled application or platform until that driver logs off of the digital network or online-enabled application or platform, or the passenger exits the vehicle, whichever is later.

This does not include a taxicab, for-hire vehicle, or street hail service, and does not include ridesharing as defined in Section 341.031, Florida Statutes, carpool as defined in Section 450.28, Florida Statutes, or any other type of service in which the driver receives a fee that does not exceed the driver's cost to provide the ride.

- B. There is no coverage under this policy other than the minimum limits required under Florida statutes for Personal Injury Protection and Uninsured Motorist Coverage for any accident, loss, "bodily injury", "property damage", or any other damage, expense, or loss for any person or any party that results from, arises out of, or is related to any person operating or using "your covered auto" or any other vehicle in any type of activity associated or connected with any personal vehicle sharing program, use, or activity.

This does not include a taxicab, for-hire vehicle, or street hail service, and does not include ridesharing as defined in Section 341.031, Florida Statutes, carpool as defined in Section 450.28, Florida Statutes, or any other type of service in which the driver receives a fee that does not exceed the driver's cost to provide the ride.

However, this exclusion applies only to the extent that the limits of liability for this coverage exceed the minimum limits of liability required by the financial responsibility law of Florida.

C. For purposes of this endorsement form:

1. Transportation network company (TNC) means any type of organization or entity that provides prearranged transportation services for compensation using a digital network, meaning any online-enabled technology application service, website, or system offered or used by a transportation network company which enables the prearrangement of rides with transportation network company drivers.
2. Personal vehicle sharing program means a group or legal entity engaged in the business or activity of facilitating or promoting the sharing of private passenger vehicles for temporary noncommercial use by individuals within the state, pursuant to a written agreement between the individual and the legal entity that sets forth the terms of use.

The following duty is added to your policy:

You must disclose to us any participation at any time by you or a "family member", as either a driver or vehicle owner, in any personal car sharing program, transportation network company, or other similar arrangement. Failure to do so may result in the rescission, cancellation, or nonrenewal of your policy. This duty does not apply to a share-the-expense carpool.

Item C. under Legal Action Against Us is replaced by the following:

Under PART D, suit or action must start within 5 years of the date of loss, but this time period will be extended by the number of days between the date you file your loss with us and the date we deny all or part of your claim.

The first paragraph of the Payment of Loss provision is replaced by the following:

Unless a claim has been paid by others, we will pay any loss covered under this policy within 20 days after we reach agreement with you, entry of a final judgment, or the filing of an appraisal award with us.

In any claim filed with us for:

- B. "Property damage"; or

- A. Why mediation is being requested; and
- B. The issues in dispute which are to be mediated.

Only one mediation may be requested for each claim, unless all parties agree to further mediation. A party demanding mediation shall not be entitled to demand or request mediation after a suit is filed relating to the same facts already mediated.

The Department shall randomly select mediators. Each party may reject one mediator, either before or after the opposing side has rejected a mediator. The mediator will notify the parties of the date, time, and place of the mediation conference, which will be held within 45 days of the request for mediation. The conference may be held by telephone, if feasible.

The mediation shall be conducted as an informal process and formal rules of evidence and procedure need not be observed. Participants must:

- A. Have authority to make a binding decision; and
- B. Mediate in good faith.

Costs of the mediation shall be shared equally by both parties unless the mediator determines that one party has not mediated in good faith.

You or the claimant may deny access to the property if the notice has not been provided or may waive the 48-hour notice.

All other policy provisions apply.
