

Temporary moratoriums on canceling or non-renewing an insurance policy for failure to make a premium payment are active in the following states until:

Arkansas – Only if you specifically request leniency by August 17, 2020

California - July 14, 2020

Delaware - July 7, 2020

Oregon - July 22, 2020

West Virginia – Until the end of the state’s Emergency Order

New York:

In alignment with the State of New York, we have put the following into place temporarily to ensure your classic(s) remains covered:

- If you have been impacted by the Coronavirus and are unable to pay your premium on time, please call us at +1 800-922-4050 to request a deferral of payment or discuss other billing options such as making payments for overdue premium over a 12-month period, even if you have received a cancellation notice for nonpayment prior to March 29, 2020.
- During this time, you may continue to receive billing invoices and payment reminders, however, your coverage will not be interrupted due to nonpayment and late fees will not be assessed through July 6, 2020. Rest assured, no negative information will be sent to a credit reporting agency.
- The State of New York also has helpful details at <https://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumers/coronavirus> including updates on grace period extensions due to the ongoing health emergency.

New Jersey:

In alignment with the State of New Jersey, we have put the following into place temporarily to ensure your classic(s) remains covered:

- If you have been impacted by the Coronavirus and are unable to pay your premium on time, please call us at +1 800-922-4050 to request a deferral of payment or discuss other billing options such as opting to choose a 90-day grace period for overdue premium starting April 1, 2020 or May 1, 2020. Premium due but not paid during this 90-day grace period may be paid back over the next 12 months.

- During this time, you may continue to receive billing invoices and payment reminders, however, your coverage will not be interrupted due to nonpayment and late fees will not be assessed. Rest assured, no negative information will be sent to a credit reporting agency.
- The State of New Jersey also has helpful details at <https://www.state.nj.us/dobi/covid/index.html> including updates on grace period extensions due to the ongoing health emergency.

District of Columbia:

In alignment with the District of Columbia, we have put the following into place temporarily to ensure your classic(s) remains covered:

- If you have been impacted by the Coronavirus and are unable to pay your premium on time, please call us at +1 800-922-4050 to request a deferral of payment or discuss other billing options. Premium due but not paid during this grace period may be paid back over the next 12 months beginning one month after the end of the Public Health Emergency.
- During this time, you may continue to receive billing invoices and payment reminders, however, your coverage will not be interrupted due to nonpayment and late fees, as well as installment fees, will not be assessed. Rest assured, no negative information will be sent to a credit reporting agency.
